

WOCNext Speaker Compensation Policy

Honorarium:

Your honorarium is contingent upon you fulfilling the requirements set forth in your speaker letter and those outlined in the online speaker form. Speakers will receive $1,000 per one-hour session. When two or more speakers present during a single one-hour session, the honorarium for each speaker shall be $500.

Registration:

Registration for all speakers is complimentary. You will have the ability to register yourself for conference by using a special promo code. Information about registering will be sent to you in January when registration opens.

Hotel:

WOCN Society will cover one-night hotel accommodations at a conference hotel. If you choose to extend your stay, the additional room nights will be at your expense. Upon check-in you will be asked for a credit card for any/all additional reservation nights, as well as any incidental charges. Information about the hotel reservation process/deadline will be sent in January.

Travel:

You will be provided with round-trip coach airfare. Arrangements for travel must be made through the conference travel agent by the cut-off date specified. Reservations made after this date will only be reimbursed up to $625. Crystal Travel is the official travel agent for WOCNext. If you prefer to book your own travel reservations, please contact Julianna King Williams (jking@wocn.org) for prior authorization, as you may not be reimbursed your full airfare expense.

Disclaimers:

WOCN is not responsible for any re-ticketing or change fees associated with your airline reservations. If you chose to book your own travel reservations (hotel and/or airfare), WOCN will only reimburse you the amount at which it would have cost if WOCN/Crystal Travel would have booked those reservations. No additional compensation beyond what is outlined above will be offered.
